KEYNOTE FOR BETTER CHARLEROI IS SOUNDED AT ANNUAL BANQUET

Home Talent Speakers Talk on Home Interest Topics to Business Men and Guests

MUSICAL PROGRAM ENJOYED

High School Orchestra and Local Singers and Players Render Selections—Dr. J. W. Hunter Serves as The Toastmaster.

Home talent speakers sounded the keynote for a bigger and better Charleroi and home talent musicians sang and played their way into the hearts of a good-sized audience of members of the Charleroi Business Men's Association and their ladies and friends at the annual banquet of the association at the high school gymnasium Thursday evening. Special emphasis was placed upon the development of the social life of the community. How best to assimilate the foreigner to make him a good citizen was discussed, and school advantages were pertinently treated among other subjects, coming under the general theme, of "A Bigger and Better Charleroi," which Dr. J. W. Hunter, toastmaster, announced in his prefatory remarks.

The speakers for the evening were W. D. Pollock, John D. Berryman, and H. J. Booth. The first speaker introduced was W. D. Pollock, whose subject was "How Can the Foreigner Best be Assimilated." In introducing Mr. Pollock Dr. Hunter took advantage of the opportunity to make a few remarks, in which he mentioned a few of the things for which Charleroi is noted, including its good schools, good clean streets, good buildings and good homes. He said with the betterment of man would come a betterment of conditions, and urged upon those present to hearken to their social duties and observe the spirit of neighborliness in encouraging men to a love of better things.

Foreign People Our Neighbors.

Mr. Pollock's talk was one from a man experienced in work with and among the aliens in the land. He referred to the foreign people as our neighbors, who should be treated as such. To best assimilate the foreigner he said the best way is to get interested in him, to believe in him and to work with and for him. The foreigner often comes to American shores with an impression that he will be readily cheated. He accepts this as a part of the freedom of the country, Mr. Pollock said, because in too many instances his first impressions are only too true. To treat a foreigner as a man, to be honest with him and to show him a square deal would make him a helpful citizen and his assimilation a fact.

Social Welfare Work.

"Social welfare work in the community," was the subject that J. D. Berryman ably discussed. He told of Charleroi's growth and said that Charleroi has never ceased to develop and never would as long as the right policy was followed. He deplored the "let George do it" spirit, which has fastened itself upon many communities to their distinct detriment. Mr. Berryman remarked that Charleroi has had its adversities, in spite of adversity. There is good reason for citizens of this town to be proud, he declared, and then added some of the reasons, which included an enumeration of school advantages, busines advantages and home advantages. In closing Mr. Berryman urged enthusiasm of all classes in boosting the town; and asked pointedly the general question, "Are you a hanger on, or a lifter?"

How To Improve Schools.

H. J. Booth, who is a member of the school board answered the question on which he spoke, "How Can Our Educational Advantages be Improved?" in short. The answer he said was simply by giving the school board the use of more money. Mr. Booth mentioned some of the problems which are faced in educational work in Charleroi, and mentioned some of the things which have been accomplished. He told of the development of the lower grades, where the number of pupils to a teacher has been reduced, to the great advantage of the pupils; of the development of the grades and high school in literary, musical, manual training and athletic work and of the assimilation of the foreign children in the school life. He spoke of some of the needs in his address mentioning among them a laboratory, a library, public speaking department, night courses and kindergartens in the schools. After telling of the needs, he again announced the great problem, which is to provide finance to keep up with the increasing needs.

Music An Enjoyed Feature.

Music was an especially attractive and highly enjoyed feature of the evening's entertainment. Under direction of Prof. I. T. Daniel, the high school orchestra, composed of eleven pieces rendered various selections and rendered them so well that they won high compliments from all the speakers. George S. Might a prominent members of the association played a violin solo. Rather he played three, because of the tumultous applause that he was accorded. Mr. Might who explained to begin with that it was the first performance for him in 20 years and that he was "nearly scared to death," essayed to play the first movement of a Beethoven Sonata, which by the way is a piece that the master Fritz Kriesler would play cautiously. Mr. Might played a part then rendered excellently a college medley. This won him such applause that he consented to play "Tipperary," concluding his performance by remarking that after he "got the thing straightened out" he'd play right.

Miss Ethel Barth sang a soprano solo, "The Swallows" by Cowen, and was warmly encored. Her tone production was superb, and consequently her efforts were greatly appreciated. Warren Kinder tenor, sang in splendid voice. "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," by Marshall and like Miss Barth was forced to respond with an encore number. W. C. Clark, a member of the association, sang the tenor solo "The Midshipmite." Mr. Clark has a voice of excellent lyric tenor quality. He responded to an encore by singing a Scotch solo. All accompaniments were played by Miss May Barth, the well known local pianist.

The high school male quartet rendered two selections. This popular organization consists of Ralph Hickey, Ernest Dorbritz, Curtis

COPY OF FIRST EDITION OF MAIL IS TREASURED

Publication of Daily Paper Started in Charleroi in June 15, 1900, by W. H. Cramer, W. H. Bright and R. W. Cramer.

Few in Charleroi have retained their copy of the first edition of the Mail, which early was known as the Charleroi Evening Mail, but Mrs. Otto Dorbritz of Washington avenue has made it a point to save one, and now it is much treasured. The date of the first issue was June 15, 1900.

The Mail was started by W. H. Cramer as manager and treasurer, W. H. Bright as political editor and R. W. Cramer, news editor. The company was known as the Charleroi Publishing Company. At the first the paper was well edited and as the usual custom when a new journal is started in a town fairly well supported. One of the features was a department in French conducted by Joseph G. Goddisart who is now living in the state of California.

"EVANGELINE" IN MOTION PICTURES AT THE PALACE

The attraction at the Palace theatre Monday will be a six part picture adapted from the well known poem, "Evangeline" by Longfellow. The picture is an exact reproduction of the poem and is one of the most instructive as well as interesting that has ever been filmed.

COUNTERFEIT HALF DOLLARS MAKE THEIR APPEARANCE

Complaints have been made regarding a counterfeit half dollar which has been widely circulated in Uniontown for the past few weeks. The coin is a rank counterfeit, which could deceive only a blind person, but nevertheless many persons seem to have the half dollars in their possession. The coin, which is probably made of a soft metal is dated 1899. It does not have anything like the usual clear ring and could easily be detected. The mould of the coin is decidedly amateurish.

SOME CHANGES EFFECTIVE WITH TOMORROW IN LIQUOR BUSINESS

Charleroi Will Have One More Hotel Bar by Fellows' License at Myford

ZWICK OUT AT FINLEYVILLE

Mrs. Hayden Will Have Only License at "Half-Way Point"—Millsboro to Have Bar. But Stockdale Will be Entirely Dry.

The liquor license year in this county closes tonight but there are not many changes in these places of business. At Finleyville Elizabeth Hayden, owner and proprietress of the Hotel Hayden at that place, where formerly there was a saloon, will again open her bar for business on Saturday. John J. Zwick, who has enjoyed the monopoly of the one license there for several years, will be closed. He was refused a license at the last license court the court giving a license to Mrs. Hayden. Mr. Zwick came to Finleyville from Pittsburg where he had been in the hotel business and secured a license. Formerly there were three licensed places in Finleyville but following alleged violations of the law the town was made dry for a time.

Charleroi will have one more hotel bar Saturday. George M. Fellows, refused a year ago, at the Hotel Myford was granted a license and will open his bar. Charleroi will have with this seven saloons.

Thomas Madigan, whose bar has been closed for a year at Hotel Madigan, Millsboro, will open up for business again. He was refused a year ago, following a sensational murder in that town, which, it is said had some influence on the court's action.

The Lazzari hotel, at Monongahela, will not have a license this coming year. Louis Lazzari some months ago lost his health and his wife took over the business. The court refused all applicants from that borough.

Elrama in Union township will be dry after this week. Thomas Perry, who has enjoyed license there for several years was refused a license.

This is a short statement but is expresses fully what the Young Men's Christian association is in Bentleyville and what it means to the town and community. The younger men of the town and community are putting their shoulder to the wheel and all are helping. Dr. E. E. French, Dr. W. R. Robison and others, who have been ardent workers in the organization should be given much credit for the work so far accomplished. Business men are also aiding in the cause. Interest is keen and enthusiasm in the work is at high pitch. During the winter especially was much progress made by the association. The membership committe reports many new members. Not only Bentleyville, but Ellsworth also is helping along the work. Contributions of various kinds have been received by the association and it is assured that the organization will have still greater interest and much enthusiastic work in the future.

LOAFING.

Among the list of nuisances may be numbered that of street loafing, from which all towns and cities seem to suffer. The Uniontown Genius grinds the following editorially:

"Warm weather will bring out the men who find pleasure in standing around on the street. The women and children also like to walk along the streets and some of the less thoughtless members of the male sex need cautioning regarding the blockade of the streets. If men persist in being on the streets, the curb is the place for them and not the middle of the sidewalks. Oftentimes men meet and stop in the middle of the sidewalk to converse a few minutes. Those persons are not included in the list of blockaders, but nevertheless they cause some inconvenience and should be asked in a most polite manner to step to the curb or move on. That would not offend them. The police should keep the sidewalks clear, especially in front of barrooms where the "herds" assemble and often force the women folks or the children to walk into the street to pass them. The police should carry out the anti-loafing orders in a nice manner and then if the persons warned do not heed, other means should be taken."

Street loafing is something from which Charleroi has suffered. There is a sort of street loafing that is especially annoying and detrimental to a town. This is the kind that produce disorders.

Last Sunday night on a street a disgraceful scene occurred. Two men engaged in an altercation, that true enough was of short duration, but still serious. It took place with women nearby, and constituted more or less of an insult to decency. Such disorders ought to be prevented and usually can be by keeping the sidewalks well cleared of idlers.

Collins and Russell Carl. Their singing was meritorious, all members showing the benefit of vocal work.

The menu prepared by the women of the Charleroi free library association was one of the old fashioned kind, which was more of a square meal than a menu. The meal was well served, and the appetizing dainties were made to quickly disappear. The committee did not leave any part undone and the program was complete from the invocation by Rev. W. G. Carl, of the First Baptist church at the beginning of the supper to the good night of the toastmaster at the conclusion of the entertainment.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Louisville, Ky.—"I think if more suffering women would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound they would enjoy better health." I suffered from a female trouble, and the doctors decided I had a tumorous growth and would have to be operated upon, but I refused as I do not believe in operations. I had fainting spells, bloated, and could hardly stand the pain in my left side. My husband insisted that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful I did, for I am now a well woman. I sleep better, do all my housework and take long walks. I never fail to praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my good health."—Mrs. J. M. RESCH, 1900 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

French Remedy Aids Stomach Sufferers

France has been called the nation without stomach troubles. The French have for generations used a simple mixture of vegetable oils that relieve stomach and intestinal ailments and keep the bowels free from foul, poisonous matter. The stomach is left to perform its functions normally. Indigestion and gastritis vanish.

Mr. Geo. H. Mayr, a leading druggist of Chicago, cured himself with this remedy in a short time. The demand is so great that he imports these oils from France and compounds them under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. People everywhere write and testify to the marvelous relief they have received using this remedy—one dose will rid the body of poisonous accretions that have accumulated for years and convince the most chronic sufferer from stomach, liver or intestinal troubles.

SOLOMON JONES

GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Concrete Work a Specialty.

NOTICE—Avail yourself of the opportunity to join the Concrete Club which offer will be open from April first. A splendid chance for property holders to save money. Any person having over 500 sq. ft. of sidewalk to be laid can join this club. The larger the club the more reasonable the price per sq. ft. You who have work to be done help form the club by saying to your next door neighbor, "Let us join the Concrete Club for a cheaper rate."

By this method, the work being more systematically handled, the concrete being all mixed by machine and the latest and best methods of the Concrete and Cement age being used, the sidewalk presents a more uniform appearance, the work can be more reasonably done and will give better service.

As much care should be taken in making sidewalks as in the paving of streets. Don't miss this opportunity. Office 616 Long Alley, rear of Parke Trading Stamp building. P. O. box 376.

for alleged violations of the law. His bar will close Friday evening.

John T. Starr at West Brownsville, was refused a license during license court, but upon a rehearing was granted a license, so his business will not be affected.

C. F. Cardon, owner of the Hotel Irondale at Donora will conduct the hotel beginning May 1 the hotel now being conducted by Edgar F. Morse. Mr. Cardon and Mr. Morse were both applicants for the license but later Morse withdrew. There were some differences between Mr. Cardon and Mr. Morse and they did not get together. Mr. Cardon endeavored later to have the license transferred to another party, claiming his health did not permit him to run the hotel, but the court refused the transfer.
